Summary

This dataset shows the location of wood processing facilities in New South Wales.

Description

This point dataset shows the location of wood processing facilities in New South Wales and has been created for the Australian Biomass for Bioenergy Assessment (ABBA) project for NSW, Australia. The term facility includes businesses such as sawmillers, firewood and fencing suppliers, particleboard and plywood manufacturers. The facility data and location were collated from publicly available information. Attributes include the business name, address by town, state and postcode and the wood type processed.
